Senator of the Month Achievement Act

Bill # FA - 02- 15

Prime Sponsor(s): Senator Charles Thornton

Cosponsor(s): Senator William Shorter

Committee: SGA

Bill Type: ☐ Budget Bill ☐ Finance Bill ☒ Senate Bill ☐ Government Bill

WHEREAS, attendance for SGA related meetings and events has been difficult to achieve; and,

WHEREAS, organizational and social science based research has found intrinsic motivators most effective in encouraging effective task engagement; and,

WHEREAS, universities across the United States have successfully implemented student government organized programs highlighting individual student government association senatorial achievements; and,

WHEREAS, University System of Maryland Policy Bylaw Section V-6.00 and Policy Bylaw Section V-1.00 governs and encourages student governmental activities that lead to educational and cultural objectives; and,

WHEREAS, the University of Baltimore Strategic Plan of 2014-2017, as part of its mission statement, seeks to establish a foundation for lifelong learning, personal development, and social responsibility.

THEREFORE LET IT BE ENACTED THAT:

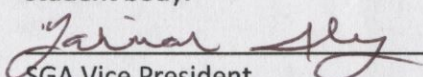

SECTION 1. The Student Government Association Executive Board shall implement and administrate, in conjunction with the Senate, a program honoring individual senatorial accomplishments, and nominated by any student, faculty, or staff through Senator of the Month awards.

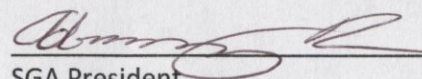

SECTION 2. The Student Government Association Executive Board shall select, from said nominations, by majority vote, one Senator per month during each Spring and Fall semester, one senator per winter session, and one Senator per Summer semester, as Senator of the Month.

SECTION 3. Nominations from student, faculty, or staff shall be accepted from the first to last day of each calendar month for the Fall and Spring semesters, and the first to last scheduled date of each winter or summer session or semester.

SECTION 4. Selections for Senator of the Month shall be chosen from the following criteria:

I. Senate and Committee meeting attendance. II. Assistance with SGA sponsored events. III. Community service, either within or outside the campus community. IV. Passed legislation that benefits the greater student body.
