

Vote Everywhere

A Discussion on Voting Rights and Implications

Thursday, April 27

Abbreviated List of Recommended Websites for Information on Voting in the U.S.

1. Federal Election Commission: www.fec.gov
(This extensive website contains information about campaign finances for federal candidates and also has reports on voter turnout and election results for prior federal elections).
2. National Association of Secretaries of State: www.nass.org/
(From this website you can link on any of the fifty states to get to the top election official in that state; the individual election director or administrators website will have significant information about voter qualifications, voter registration, voter turnout and election results)
3. U.S. Census Bureau: www.census.gov
(Click on the right hand column, "Quick Facts for State and County," and you will find relevant census data; also maps with counties.)
4. U.S. Election Assistance Commission: www.eac.gov
(The website for this federal election entity contains reports that detail voter turnout and registration information for recent elections.)
5. US Elections Project <https://www.electproject.org/election-data/voter-turnout-data>

Pasted below is a link to the Maryland State Board of Elections website page that provides a brief description of voting in Maryland and related links that should be added to the above list.

<https://elections.maryland.gov/elections/2022/index.html#qballots>